

General Information

- The SAA considers its Teacher Development Program to be in-depth pedagogical study for professional musicians.
- To qualify as a Participant in the courses, you must submit and pass an audition.
- Audition deadline is eight weeks prior to course start.
- Every Child Can! (prerequisite) and Books 1 and 2 must be taken in order.
- A minimum age of 17 and a high school diploma are requirements for entering the Teacher Development Program.
- Processing time varies from 4-8 weeks in most cases. Results from late submissions may not be available by start of course.
- SAA membership is required for Book 1 and beyond.
- When a course is taken and completed, it will be registered with the SAA. (Registered courses count towards earning a Certificate of Achievement.)

Preparing & Submitting Your Audition:

- Prepare a well-polished performance. Memorization and accompaniment are not required.
- Home filming is usually adequate. Please review your recording for video and audio quality before submitting.
- Camera position must focus on player's hand position and show entire body if possible.
- Audition must be submitted in DVD format; make sure it plays on your DVD player (not just on your computer). Keep a copy for yourself.
- Label DVD with your name, address, phone, instrument and piece(s) performed.
- Include application form and payment.
- It is recommended that you use a trackable form of shipping.

Evaluation Criteria:

Areas that will be evaluated in your audition include: physical balance, ease of movement, tone production, note accuracy, rhythmic accuracy, intonation, maintaining steady pulse, playing with appropriate tempo, dynamic variation, appropriate and consistent articulation, creation of motion in melodic line and phrase shaping and consistency with stylistic conventions.

Basic Audition

For training in Books 1-4: Submit an audition of both specified pieces below to SAA. Roman numerals indicate the movement. Edition is your choice. An accepted basic audition qualifies the applicant to register as a participant in Books 1-4.

Provisional Participant, Auditors

The SAA strongly encourages Participant status. If an audition is not sent before the start of the course or the results of your audition are not yet available when you begin the course, your status will be Audition Pending (Provisional Participant). The postmark deadline for Audition Pending (Provisional Participant) is 4 weeks after the course is completed. If the audition is accepted, your status becomes Participant and your course participation will register, provided that all other requirements are met. If the audition is not accepted, your status becomes Auditor and the course will not be registered.
